

To whom it may concern

Regarding Mitcham Eastfields estates plan.

In my view I think the estate should stay the same but make improvements to whats already there, to make better, the front, rear and internal of the properties. this will save a lot of money, better then knocking down peoples homes.

That is my view.

Regards.

