

Dear Future Merton,

I am a local resident in [REDACTED] and my house backs on to [REDACTED].

The estate is a huge eye-sore and a hideous blot on the landscape. All around are lovely victorian terraced houses.

The new proposed 'cheap' blocks are just replacing one eye-sore with another. The victorian style terraced houses work. They have stood the test of time. They will not need redeveloping in 30 years. The answer is staring us in the face - I think we should learn from history and flatten the High Path Estate and rebuild it in the style of victorian terraced houses.

It's what people actually want to live in.

Thanks
