Part 18  Sharing information with your landlord or their agent

Sometimes, sharing information with your landlord helps us to deal with your claim more quickly and reduces the risk of you falling behind with your rent because of your claim being delayed. We will only share information with your landlord if you are a council tenant or if you are a private tenant and have asked us to pay Housing Benefit directly to your landlord or their agent.

Under the Data Protection Act, we need your permission to share information. If you give us permission, we would be able to tell your landlord or their agent:
• if you had claimed Housing Benefit and, if so, whether we have made a decision on your claim or not; and
• if we need further information to make a decision on your claim, and what information this is.

There may be other information about your claim that we need to check with your landlord or their agent, such as the date your tenancy started, before we can make a decision. If this is the case, we can ask your landlord or their agent, even if you have not given us permission to discuss your claim with them. But, unless you have given us permission by signing this part of the form, we will not discuss anything else with your landlord.

We will not give your landlord or their agent any information about:
• your personal circumstances; or
• your financial circumstances.

If you do not give us permission to discuss your claim with your landlord, or their agent, it will not affect your claim. If you give us permission but then change your mind, we will follow your wishes. Just write to us to confirm you now give your permission.

Do you give Merton Benefits Service and Merton Link permission to share information about the progress of your Housing Benefit claim with your landlord or their agent?

Changes you must tell us about

Tear out this section and keep it in a safe place so that you have a reminder of which changes you must tell us about. If you have filled in the Certificate of childcare costs on the back of this sheet, photocopy this section instead.

Tell us straight away and no later than one month after if:
• any of your children leave school or leave home;
• anyone moves into or out of your home (including lodgers and subtenants);
• your income or the income of anyone living with you changes;
• your savings or investments change by more than £200;
• you or anyone living with you becomes a student, goes on a Youth Training Scheme, goes into hospital or a nursing home, goes into prison, or gets, changes or leaves a job;
• your rent changes;
• you move;
• you or your partner are going to be away from home for more than a month;
• you receive any decision from the Home Office;
• anything you have told us about on this form changes in the future; or
• you get married, form a civil partnership or start living with someone as if you were married or civil partners.

You must tell us about these changes in writing – a phone call is not enough.

If you don’t tell us about these changes you may lose money you are entitled to or you may get too much benefit and then have to pay it back.

You must make sure that you tell us about these changes. Don’t rely on someone else to pass the message on.

It is an offence not to tell us about any change of circumstances that affects your Housing Benefit or Council Tax Support. We may take court action against you and if we pay you too much benefit, you may have to pay it back.
